

Esker to Attend This Year's 9th Annual Customer Experience World Conference 2017

Derby, UK — 19th May 2017 — Esker, a worldwide leader in document process automation solutions, is excited to announce its participation at this year's Customer Experience World Conference #CustomerExperience @thefocusgroupuk which is taking place 23rd – 24th May 2017 at Prospero House, London Bridge, UK.

Samuel Townsend, Head of Marketing for Northern Europe at Esker, explains: "As this is the 9th annual summit and the most advanced customer experience event being held in the UK, we are very excited to be part of it. Having previously helped many organisations achieve their operational customer experience (CX) goals by streamlining document processes, it will be exciting to share these practices with the CX professionals attending this summit.

Visit our stand and you will be able to speak to industry experts about how Esker solutions can automate every phase of order processing and customer issue management regardless of how the documents are received by your organisation, for example by email, fax, paper, EDI or Web, and address the challenges of manual document processing both into and out of your organisation".

Samuel Townsend continued "With hundreds of delegates expected throughout the two day event, we look forward to speaking with delegates and to understand how we can help them improve their current manual document processes through automation to bring multiple business benefits".
